Note here that the article's author, Bruno Bioul, who unfortunately did not put his name to his work, captures the association's ethos well. It is a shame however that part of the writing leads the reader to believe that France has only had an administrative structure for this domain since the 70s.

7 à Vous no. 20, Nov. 2008, p. 12.

The 7th district of Paris opened up its newsletter's pages to present associations (charities, non-profits) in the district in which we are based. To download the letter, click on the image.

La lettre de Paris Cadecs, Nov/Dec 2008, “Entretien avec Jean-Olivier Gransard-Desmond, Président de l’association ArkéoTopia, une autre voie pour l’archéologie,” p.1-3. CADECS is the Coordination des Associations de Développement Economique, Culturel et Social de Paris (coordination of Paris associations relating to economic, cultural and social development). Interview carried out by Matthieu Puttemans with our president. Reading can lend a new angle ArkéoTopia’s objectives and its position for anyone who would like to try to understand these in more depth. To download the letter, click on the image.
