

Find ArkéoTopia on social networks

Board of Trustees

Jean-Olivier Gransard-Desmond - President

- PhD in Archaeology
- Specialist in human-animal relations
- Member of the EEA (European Association of Archaeologists)
- President and co-founder of ArkéoTopia

You would like to know more about him. The communication service investigates and reveals ArkeoTopia's creation in this interview in French.

Christiane Angibous-Esnault - General Secretary

- In charge of internal and external communication
- Communications officer, Events specialist
- General Secretary and Co-Founder of ArkéoTopia

A co-worker unlike others turned to archaeology after agrochemistry and the pharmaceutical industry. Discover how a post as communications officer can lead to getting involved in archaeology \(in french\) and find more about her on her personal web site www.angibous-esnault.fr.

Who are we?

Published: Tuesday, 23 May 2017 10:13
Hits: 3999

Sophie Beauchef-Bugnon - Administrator

- PhD in Art History and Archeology
- Specialist in the Greek funerary arts of the classical and Hellenistic eras

As a French and Swiss citizen, I am a member of several associations dealing with Archeology, Art History and Anthropology in both countries. I taught Art and Archeology of Ancient Greek for several years at the Paris Nanterre University. Since I attach great importance to high standards of scientific mediation geared towards a large audience, I started out as facilitator within the association. Nowadays, I actively support a wide range of their activities.

Gallic Beauchef - Administrator

- PhD in Cell and Molecular Biology
- Laboratory Head for a major cosmetic group

Curious about various scientific disciplines and keen to get involved in the associative sector, I wanted to participate in the ArkéoTopia adventure, to expand my knowledge in Archeology and Social Science. I help the association by managing different tasks: administration, photographic reporting, preparation of materials, etc.

ArkéoTopia's Activity Leaders

Sophie Bugnon

Who are we?

Published: Tuesday, 23 May 2017 10:13

Hits: 3999

- - PhD in Art History and Archeology from Paris West Nanterre (Paris X)
- - Specialised in classical and hellenic Greek funeral art (Greece, Macedonia, Asia Minor and southern Italy)
- - ArkéOdyssees Leader

Also a member of ASHHA-VKKS (Association Suisse des Historiens et Historiennes de l'Art/Vereinigung der Kunsthistorikerinnen und Kunsthistoriker in der Schweiz – Swiss Art Historian's Association) due to my Franco-Swiss dual nationality and of GAAF (Groupement d'Anthropologie et d'Archéologie funéraire = Funerary Anthropology and Archaeology Group), I was a lecturer in hellenistic sculpture at the Université de Paris X-Nanterre before being called on by ArkéoTopia to present the ArkéOdyssees, thereby contributing to quality scientific workshops whilst pursuing my research and publication work.

Sylvain Rey

- archaeologist (Master)
- Specialised in french medieval period
- Science ambassador for Archaeology Secrets and ArkeoKids

Élodie Rotté

- archaeologist (Master) and trained in science education in particular for archaeology
- Specialised in Iron Age and beginning of hellenic period in Egypt and around
- Science educator for ArkeoKids

Who are we?

Published: Tuesday, 23 May 2017 10:13

Hits: 3999

Being keen on history and archaeology, I joined ArkéoTopia with great interest: another way for archeology, offering a different approach to archeology from that practiced in France, and passionate activities. I bring my viewpoint and my knowledge to ArkéoTopia, cultivated by varied experiences and digs in France and abroad.